The Romance of Spain Barcelona, The Alhambra, and Seville

A cathedral melting from the sky...a house with a “Chimney Garden” on the roof... an imperial palace/fortress where Christopher Columbus reported that he had bumped into something on the way to India...a belltower of Moorish heritage...

Spain blends a multitude of cultures and heritage into one beautiful country! In Barcelona, marvel at the unimaginable architecture of Antonio Gaudi. In Granada, channel the mysterious Moors who built the Alhambra Fortress with its exquisite gardens and legends of princes and princesses. In Seville, compare the university town vibe with the elegance of the Plaza de España—don't forget to climb the Giralda Tower, the 3rd largest bell tower in the world.
